DR. MOTT'S
CHALBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.
An aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion of Hydrogen, and sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.
The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Inexhaustible in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
Anemia, Dyspepsia, Constipation,
Diarrhea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrophulous Tuberculosis,
Salt Rheum, Misanthropy, Whites,
Headaches, Rheumatism, Chronic
Fever, Pimples on the Face, &c.
In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the gradual diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids long bedridden are to have become vigorous in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land.
Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emaciated vicious, of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complications of nervous and dyspeptic averse to all and exercise for which the physician has

SOUTHERN BRAVADO.

The South have often threatened the North, that it would dissolve the Union unless the North adopted Southern policy. Timid men have always, taken alarm at these threats and have yielded more or less to them. Four hundred thousand slave holders, have done more to control the policy of the government of the United States for the last thirty years than all others. The question is now fairly presented, and it remains to be seen whether the people of this country are to be governed by majorities, or minorities. It is not the question of the extension of slavery alone, which is now before the country, but above and beyond that, is a higher, and more important issue, an issue which addresses itself to the self respect of all Northern men. Have they the capabilities of depending to act according to their own convictions of what is right, in the face of the threats of these Southern fire-eaters. It appeals directly to the manliness of the Northern nature. Have Northern men courage enough to dare to do right, or are they so timorous that they will tamely submit to the control of the Southern slave owners? Is this, a free country while five hundred thousand men are permitted to control twenty-four millions? Do these slave holders suppose that they are to control their negroes at home, and that the few men at the North are to submit as tamely to this control as do the slaves at the South? We most sincerely hope that this bravado at the South will not create in the North any disposition to retaliate upon the men of the South. Let us guard with equal vigilance the rights of every section of this country and restore the Constitution to the interpretation which its founders gave it, and faithfully observe and keep all its compromises. Let our motto be "Dare do all becomes a man. He who dares do more is none."

DEWOLF'S PATENT COPPER PENS.

A sample of these pens have been handed to us by the patentee. Their quality so far as we have tried them appears to be excellent and we do not hesitate to recommend them to those who desire a non-corrosive and free writing pen. They can be obtained of A. J. Ward.

CHANGE OF TIME.

The Fall River steamboats now leave New York at 4 o'clock, P. M., instead of 5, as heretofore.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO JAMES STEWART.

Esq., Express Messenger of Kinsley's Express, for Boston papers nineteen hours in advance of the mail.

THE RHODE ISLAND DEMOCRACY.

Jacob's cattle had not more colors, than there are different stripes of Democrats in our little State. They have tried hard to cement the broken fragments of their once powerful organization. They have exhausted all the appliances known to the easy virtue of yielding Democracy without avail. They have sought out old Whigs and with the tears of despair have implored them to come to their aid, and to stand upon their electoral ticket, but in vain. Though they are perhaps, not more than fifty Breckinridge men in the party, for the sake of conciliating this faction the party have nominated Mr. Dunoon, one of the strongest and most open Breckinridge men in the State, who would not accept the nomination, until the Resolutions of the Convention were qualified and rendered inoperative by the Democratic organ. And Samuel Rodman, another of the electors, is not free from all taint of Breckinridge proclivities. He manufactures and sells immense quantities of negro clothes. Begart, it is said, is an old whig. Very little is known of his antecedents, but if he is an old whig, all that we have to say about him, is that he is in bad company. The Providence Post, favors Douglas, and deals dreadful blows against its Breckinridge assailants, and none of its adversaries, have been dealt with more severity, than the Breckinridge man, who is confidently the ablest man in the party in Rhode Island, and is second in ability to but few, if any Democrats in New England.

The Democrat leaders have had important convocations in Providence, within the last few days, with the view of carrying the State for their party. Their hopes were cheered by the expectation that some of their candidates were inclined to make large investments in political stock.

WIDE AWAKE POLITICS.

The Charleston Mercury, talking of the liberal contributions which the New York Democrats are making to defeat Lincoln, says:

"Add the thousands of Gotham given to parties that they should bleed themselves as freely, and in so hopeless a task, as diverting, by gold and gabble, the people of a great free State from the vindication of their political convictions? Are the people of New York so timid and so profligate in political sentiment that an attempt at no-compromise should be gravely attempted? It is indeed an argument against their capacity for self-government—an insult to the cardinal principles of republican government, and a horrid slur upon the rural population of the great Empire State. In fact, we are astonished at the audacity, not to say the immorality, of the attempt. We presume, however, that fear is unscrupulous, and under the higher law plea of necessity these bad practices are reconciled to the consciences of terrified merchants. But who is it that is cruelly terrifying these northern princes, and making them come down to the work of defeating Lincoln? Has the South got them by the pockets, that they should display such zeal, and do they know it? Is it the disunion braggadocio at the south that induces them at this late day to make such herculean exertions? We ask for information. In this instance, however, we are sorry to believe the New Yorkers may save themselves the trouble. The city is not the State, and the people of the interior of New York are too many, if not too honest, to be bought, nor can they be frightened by southern thunder."

Grand Wide Awake Demonstration in Fall River.

The visit and lecture of Hon. John A. Andrew in Fall River, Thursday evening, were made the occasion of a most enthusiastic demonstration by the Wide Awakes, and a generous welcome on the part of the citizens generally. The Wide Awakes, numbering 150, in uniform, bearing torches, banners and transparencies, proceeded to the residence of Hon. James Buffington, when the order of the procession was as follows: The Fall River Brass Band; Wide Awakes with torches; Fall River R. I. Ly. Lincoln and Hamlin Club, with torches; an open barouche drawn by four black horses, and containing Hon. John A. Andrew, Hon. Linus B. Cornins, Hon. James Buffington, and Hon. Foster Hooper; and citizens generally bringing up the rear. Many residences were illuminated, and a grand time was had generally.—N. B. Standard.

Mr. Douglas in the South.

—The Memphis Avalanche speaks as follows of one of the Presidential candidates:

"As we have already announced, the bloated visage of Stephen A. Douglas is now turned toward the South. He commences his tramp to-day, and like an itinerant pedler of Yankee notions, will soon be hawking his pinhead principles over the heads of the people in the midst with no worthier motives than the mobadary, for he can only expect by his visit to add to the strength of Bell, whose election it is obvious he prefers to that of Breckinridge. If Mr. Douglas would make a decent, dignified, truthful speech, his arrogance could be tolerated. But to be said, to the shame of our politics, that he so equivocates and deceives, so abandons the truth and stoiks to falsehood that he renders himself an insufferable nuisance, while he has brought into disrepute the politics of the country."

John A. Dix, the New York postmaster, is stamping for the Unionists in his State. The New York Post kindly refreshes his memory by quoting a letter which he wrote in 1848. In it we find these sentences: "No man can hereafter say, with any hope of a response from the public judgment, that Congress may not, without violating the constitution, prohibit slavery in the territories of the United States. Let it be proclaimed that territories free shall remain free; and be assured that on this issue I shall be with you under all circumstances and in all time."

"Occasional," of the Philadelphia Press

writes: "Whether the threats of secession made by southern orators and southern journals are the mere empty and exaggerated language of an exciting presidential canvass or not, it is, nevertheless, the fact that there never was, since the adoption of the constitution, less ground on the part of the South for a dissolution of the Union than now. General Harrison and Millard Fillmore, when they were presented for the suffrages of the southern people, had much worse records on the slavery question, in a southern point of view, than Mr. Lincoln now has; at least, they had as bad; and yet their claims to the presidency were upheld upon every stump in the south."

The Wide Awakes of New York evidently mean to do what they can to prevent fraud at the polls. They have adopted a plan of "Wide Awake tactics for election day." We quote one of the orders: "It shall be the duty of the lieutenant to divide his men in each district into Look Outs, Challengers and Ticket-Men. The Look-Outs shall see that the ticket box is safely guarded, and that no spurious tickets be placed therein. The Challengers, that no person shall vote who is not entitled to do so. The Ticket-Men, that voters are supplied with proper tickets, and bring up those who have not yet voted."

THE WIDE AWAKE DEMONSTRATION.

The demonstration of Thursday evening promises to be an uncommonly brilliant affair. Besides the Providence clubs, delegations are expected from Newport, Bristol, Warren, Fall River, Woonsocket, Westerly and other places. It is probable that some of the Boston clubs may return the compliment which our clubs have frequently paid to their demonstrations. The houses and stores on the line of the march will doubtless be illuminated and decorated with lanterns and transparencies. The lanterns are cheap and easily arranged, and they make a fine display. The young men are moving actively in the business and all are looking forward to a successful demonstration.—[Prov. Journal.

AWFUL CALAMITY AT SEA.

A GLOUCESTER SCHOONER RUN DOWN BY A STEAMER, ELEVEN LIVES LOST.—SEVEN MEN DROWNED, TWO DEVOURED BY SHARKS.—SUFFERINGS OF THE SURVIVORS.

A Gloucester correspondent informs us that intelligence has been received at that port of the loss of one of the mackerel catchers which left the Bay of St. Lawrence last month with a full fare. When just outside of Cape Canso, during the night, in a thick fog, she was run down by a steamer, carrying away her bowsprit and foremast, and starting in her bows. What damage the steamer sustained is not known, as she passed on without offering any assistance to the schooner. The wind blowing fresh from the northward, they found it impossible to reach the Nova Scotia shore, and after drifting about for two days headed for the Western Islands, but had proceeded but twenty four hours when she became water-logged and unmanageable. Seven of the crew were washed overboard by the sea, and the remaining nine took to the boat. They were in the boat two days, when it capsize, and before they could get her righted two men were devoured by sharks. By this misfortune they lost all their provisions, water and oars. In this condition they floated about for four days, during which time two men died from exhaustion. One of the bodies was thrown overboard and the other was kept to satisfy the hunger which was consuming them; but just as they were about to partake of this horrid meal, a sail hove in sight, which rapidly neared and rescued them more dead than alive.

The vessel which rescued them was a Portuguese. She carried them to St. Domingo, where they were kindly treated and sent home by the American Consul. The name of the schooner is not given, neither the name of the captain or crew. The steamer was probably one outward bound, as no intelligence of such a collision has been received on this side of the Atlantic.—[Boston Journal.

The newspaper correspondents are very busy making a cabinet for Lincoln. They talk of his having written to this or that southern statesman upon the subject. There is not much danger of error in asserting that he has not written a line to any statesman about the matter. The letter writers will probably frame a hundred cabinets for him within a few weeks.—[Prov. Journal.

The Wide Awakes of this city have voted to attend the great torch-light procession in Providence, next Thursday evening, Nov. 1. The committee on the street parade have made arrangements to furnish Wide Awake Clubs, a cap, cape and torch for $1, or a cap and torch for thirty-five cents. This offer will, we hope, facilitate the organization of new clubs, and stimulate many towns to "bury up" their delegations.—[Fall River News.

EYES AND EYELIDS.

A true specific, and invaluable remedy has been at last discovered. Dr. Humphreys argues that these affections invariably result from a constitutional disease, of which the local affection is only the outward manifestation. Hence, HUMPHREY'S SPECIFIC HOMOEOPATHIC OPHTHALMIA PILL are only taken internally, and yet cure the worst forms of obstinate sore eyes and eyelids, which have resisted all other treatment. All cases of sore and inflamed eyes and eyelids, or falling, weak or defective sight, will be promptly benefited, and the cure of the worst cases is only a question of time.

THAT HAS

STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS,

And grows more and more popular every day!

And testimonials, new, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could resist, that Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the old to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 21st, 1858.

FROM WOOD: There will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative about the first of August last. I have faithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short; it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thou wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thee agents for a bottle, and receive to myself the scriptural declaration—"the reward is to the fatherless and the widow" and a fatherless and a widow.
